

T Ball...All you Need to Know!

Is my child eligible?

T Ball is open to 5 & 6 year olds. The cutoff date for 2016 is August 31st. Whatever age your child is by 8/31/16 is his or her playing age for that season.

What are the fees?

While fees are not finalized for 2016, they will be approximately $80.

What is the schedule?

T Ball is held 2 nights per week, Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6-7pm. The kids will progress during the season from a full hour of practice/skill building to a half practice/half game format.

How long does the season run?

Typically the season will begin mid April and run till the end of May. This can vary depending on weather.

What field do they play on?

T Ball is held at the West Collingwood Heights sports complex.

What equipment does my child need?

Each child should bring a glove. A helmet is optional, each team will be provided with them for all the kids to share. Sneakers or cleats are a must, no open toe shoes or flip flops. Bats are optional as well, each team will have at least one bat to share. T shirts and hats will be provided. Baseball pants or athletic shorts are both acceptable.

Will rainout games be rescheduled?

Typically, no. However, if a significant numbers of games are cancelled the schedule may be extended.

Are parents encouraged to help?

ABSOLUTELY!! Without volunteers the league could not function. No experience is necessary. We have adopted a "turn key" approach to the T Ball program with a practice by practice guide that anyone can follow.
